Composite Decking Material

WeatherBest® is your complete source for beautiful, enduring composite decking and deck railings. We offer an innovative range of products designed to look and perform like traditional wood decks but last longer. WeatherBest is noted for wood-like beauty, low-maintenance and lasting durability.

Fiber Composites, LLC, makes WeatherBest composite decking and railing products. It's the second-largest composite decking manufacturer in North America. Fiber Composites employs world-class polymer chemists and extrusion professionals who engineer, design and manufacture WeatherBest decking and railing using the latest technology and best raw materials.
